CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, February 13, 1869.

Dear Appeal: It is just a week ago this Saturday evening, from the deck of the good steamer "City of Cairo," that your correspondent waved a last farewell to what Byron would have called your

"——dear, d—d, distracted town,"

and turned his face northward with many a regret at severing the multitudinous associations which endear the Bluff City to his "fond remembrance," and with a fervent hope withal, that kindly fortune may some day guide him back to the future metropolis, destined at no remote hereafter to be to the Southern belt of States, what Chicago is to the Northern and St. Louis to the Central.

Our trip was a somewhat protracted one, with foggy days and foggier nights, and it was not until late on Tuesday evening that we hauled alongside the Packet Company's wharf in this city; but the hearty good-fellowship of Capt. Malin, Mr. Metcalf, and the other attaches of the office, gave a most agreeable animation to the monotony of the voyage and contributed greatly to the comfort and pleasure of our choice little coterie of passengers. The Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company, by the way, have achieved a popularity with the mercantile and traveling public, which is no less enviable than well-deserved; and it is with no invidious feelings towards any other officer of the company, to say of John W. Malin, that no truer gentleman nor better commander ever trod the deck of a steamer.

Vigilant, cautious to a fault, though master of his profession, he has followed the Western waters for nearly thirty years, and during that period of a third of a century, has never met with a dissster worth the mention, nor had occasion to "enter protest" but in a single instance! With such men in their places of trust, the good fortune of the company may readily be accounted for. Leaving the boat on Wednesday morning, after a substantial breakfast at the restaurant, we took quarters at the Planters' House, kept by Messrs. Fogg & Sparr, the busiest, fullest, best bedded and best victualed hotel in the city, the Southern not excepted. This house being the center of the various railroad ticket offices, is the grand "point of departure" for passengers, and the crowded 'busses of the Transfer Company, going and coming at all train hours, give to the establishment the external appearance of a gigantic railway station. But notwithstanding the rush without and rush within, everything is orderly as clockwork, and everybody is made to feel at home, by the proprietors and our good friends, Cunningham, Sperry and Lennox, at the desk. Good as the St. Louis hotels unquestionably are, it is universally admitted that all things considered, the Planters "takes the horns."

The immediate excitement here seems to be the "velocipede." There are no less than four schools in the city for teaching and exhibiting the use of this new method of locomotion, a quarter being charged for a sight, and a dollar an hour for the privilege of "trying the thing," or rather, trying on the thing. It strikes me that the town is rather behind the times in just waking up to this very stupid sort of a sensation, which has almost ceased to be a novelty everywhere else.

The agent of the "Home Washing Machine," a new and wonderful "contraption," also contrived to get up a little stir on the streets yesterday, by turning out in procession about sixty Parcel Express wagons, each bearing one of the "Machines," and headed by a brass band, sundry Celtic washwomen being deputed at various intervals to rush out frantically from the sidewalk and try to buy on the spot. We don't know exactly what the thing will do, but it is said to go through a dirty wardrobe on a "double quick."

There is no particular lack of amusements here just now, such as they are. The great Janauscheck closes her engagement at DeBar's Opera House on Sunday evening, as Maria Stuart. By the way, what would your Reverend Superintendent of Police say to the opening of the New Memphis, at the usual hour of night service on the Lord's day? No more, perhaps, than all decent people ought; and it is not at all to the credit of St. Louis that the opening of her theaters and saloons and billiard halls on Sunday, passes without audible protest, and we are no puritan in our morals either. Then at the Olympic is "The Leffrigwell," humorist and comedian, voted quite generally by the public as rather an "over-do," and by some sharp critics as something of a bore. At the "Varieties" the entertainment is as varied and elegant as usual, Manager Broom of Memphis, needing not to blush for his namesake concern on Washington street, when rated alongside of this abomination.

In the musical line, the amateurs and connoisseurs and the snobs who are neither, are just reviving from the ecstasy of a season with Clara Kellogg, assisted by Herr Kopta, Alida Topp and so forth.

Of business matters, with less gossip and nonsense, more in our next. We have abiding faith in St. Louis. With her commanding position and immense wealth and the wonderful resources of her tributary country, no doubt can be entertained of her ultimate rank as perhaps the second commercial city of the Union. But when we consider what the natural causes are, which have built up the cities of St. Louis and Chicago, outside of the extraordinary stimulation given by the war to the growth of the latter, and then turn to the incalculable resources, yet undeveloped, to the latent enterprise, the peerless climate and unrivaled capacities of the Southwest; it is far more than our loyal love of your gallant people—far more than the sanguine temper of our fraternal hope—it is a well-defined logical conviction that inspires belief in a fast coming future of prosperity, when the South shall be more than the peer of the North and West, and even the city of Memphis, tried in the crucible as she has been, shall attain to no mean rivalship with St. Louis and Chicago. Again soon.

DIDYMUS PECK.

Will Johnson be a Candidate for Governor?

Editors of Memphis Appeal:

Will President Johnson become a candidate for Governor of Tennessee? I think this question may be safely answered in the negative.

There are many reasons why Mr. Johnson would not desire to accept the nomination as a candidate for office.

1st. His long and arduous services in the many offices he has filled, from the lowest to the highest position of public trust, has earned for him the right to pass the remainder of his life in a position of dignified repose.

2d. His large experience in public offices, his extensive opportunities of becoming acquainted with the practical operation of our peculiar political system qualify him in an eminent degree as a sage counsellor of those upon whom the management of public affairs may be imposed, and, especially as a safe counsellor of the people, upon whose capacity for self-government he has always relied, even when their action was opposed to what he thought it was best for them to do.

3d. The part he has acted in the revolution has unavoidably forced him into antagonism, at different times, with the people of both sections.

Pending the war, the great body of the Southern people looked upon him as their greatest enemy. Subsequent events forced him into a conflict with the great body of the people of the North.

Prejudice and passion, more than truth and reason, ruled in both cases; but the result is, that Mr. Johnson has realized the fact that Republics are ungrateful.

4th. The country now needs repose. Party conflicts have engendered animosity in the hearts of the people against old party leaders. If we would tranquilize the public mind, we must call out new men, against whom there is no deep-seated prejudice. X.

Caleb Cushing—Appropriations and Deficiencies.

[From the Louisville Democrat.]

WASHINGTON, February 14, 1869.

THE RADICALS AND GRANT.

The Radicals to-day express open disgust with Grant. He wants an honest administration, and frankly avows his determination to drive from office the official rogues and other plunderers, and intends to know personally the character of applicants for office. He also says Congressmen shall not control the patronage of their districts, as heretofore, and adds fuel to the flame. Prominent Radicals predict that a row in the political camp will be the certain result of his ignoring their demands. Grant remarked to a friend recently, that if the revenue was not collected, those in charge would be required to give satisfactory reasons. All is safe now.

MOREY, OF ILL., FOR THE REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Morey, of Illinois, has been looking into the business of internal revenue for some days, which, in connection with hints, gives coloring to the rumor that he will go into the revenue department.

DR. LEFTWICH FINDS A FRIEND IN NUNN.

Dr. Leftwich, the Congressman elect from Memphis, Tenn., district, is here. On his arrival he was greatly surprised to learn of Brownlow's action in giving the certificate to Smith. There can be little doubt that Leftwich will successfully contest, as besides the justice of his case. Mr. Nunn, the present member from that district, warmly espouses his cause, and denounces the attempt to impose Smith upon the district.

THE MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

The Mississippi Convention bill will be pressed in the Reconstruction Committee to insure its passage, so as to avoid the President's pocketing it.

THE CASE OF CONOVER.

The President's pardon of the notorious Sandford Conover is severely criticised. Indeed, those fully acquainted with Conover's villainy do not hesitate to express their indignation. Moreover, the President has repeatedly reflected on his conduct in giving clemency to one who, by perjury, tried to secure the President's impeachment. Conover's wife has persistently entreated the President for mercy in his behalf, and it is charitable to believe this enlisted his sympathy and secured the pardon.

BUTLER AND THE CAUCUS.

It is pretty well understood that on Thursday night there was a caucus of the Democrats, including Messrs. Sherman, Conness, Pomeroy, Cattell and most of the impeachment Radicals and others—in all, about thirty—to perfect a combination to back down Gen. Butler. He has been advised of it, and laughed at its puerility. He said he would beat them at their own game, as he had done heretofore.

ARNOLD.

The father of Arnold, the prisoner under sentence for life at the Dry Tortugas, for alleged complicity in the assassination plot, had an interview with the President yesterday, to secure his son's pardon. Young Arnold, it will be remembered, was only proven to be in a plot to abduct President Lincoln, and was not in Washington at the time the assassination took place.

WHAT THE SENATE WILL DO WITH THE TENURE-OF-OFFICE BILL.

It is argued by some that Gen. Grant's remarks in regard to the removal and appointment of officers, will probably determine the Senate in the disposition of the bill to repeal or modify the tenure-of-office act. The Senate has had a taste of power under that law never heretofore enjoyed by that body, which it will be loth to surrender, and it is not now believed that the Senate will agree to a repeal of the act, and possibly not even to a modification of it, until Gen. Grant discovers his mode of getting rid of and appointing officials.

HAROLD.

Rev. Mr. Lewis, pastor of St. John's Church, Episcopal, on behalf of the relatives and Harold's friends, has applied to the President for permission to remove the remains to the family burial ground.

THE MURDERERS OF LINCOLN.

Application has now been made for the bodies of those executed for complicity in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, except that of Payne, and there is no doubt that President Johnson will give orders according to the request of the petitioners.

BOUTWELL'S BILL.

To insure the passage of bills at this session of Congress, irrespective of the President's approval or disapproval, it will be necessary that they get through both branches by noon of next Saturday, the 20th inst., accordingly, to secure action upon the resolution to amend the Constitution, as in cases of veto by the President. Mr. Boutwell will to morrow move that the House concur in the Senate's amendments to the resolution. There seems to be but little doubt that the House will concur without debate.

HON. CALEB CUSHING.

Hon. Caleb Cushing arrived here last night, about ten o'clock, from New York. He had an interview with Secretary Seward this morning in reference to his mission to South America, and, it is said, delivered to him the treaty he concluded in relation to the Darien ship canal.

APPROPRIATIONS AND DEFICIENCIES.

The appropriations for carrying on the government are gradually becoming exhausted. The treasury authorities now report that the coffers which contain the funds for paying the expenses of the judiciary are empty, and the requisitions of the United States Marshal will have to go unhonored until Congress sees proper to make another appropriation.

The deficiency bill now pending in Congress contains an item of deficiency on this account to the amount of $400,000. The appropriation for the fiscal year, 1868, will create a havoc amongst the Treasury clerks at the end of June next. The clerical force of the Third Auditor's office will be reduced by one hundred clerks.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

A representative of Cuban patriots is now in town. The advices last received of Dulce's proclamation, suppressing the liberty of the press, etc., are considered as certain to inflame the revolution. Information in possession of the agents shows that the patriots have recently gained most important success. They are endeavoring to get a foothold on the other end of the island, wherein the larger body of slaves are located, and which is more accessible to outside assistance. It is believed if they succeed that the slaves will be armed. The great need of the army is artillery, and practical men to command. Some officers who know something of a foundry, as well as of organizing and commanding field artillery, would be of the greatest service to them.

GEORGIA.

Respecting the former State, it is understood a majority of the committtee are in favor of reporting against the admission of her Representatives to Congress until she has complied with the Reconstruction Acts. The action of her Legislature, is turning out negro Representatives, and disfranchising the negroes in the State, is regarded as a clear violation of the conditions upon which she was admitted, and until she complies with those conditions she will not be entitled to have representation in either house.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.]

To the Memory of Col. J. H. McMahon,* of Memphis.

BY J. W. ROGERS.

Warm are the tears, sincerely shed,
McMahon, o'er thy fallen head,
And while the lightning and the Press
Tell to the world its lowliness,
Few are the hearts that will not swell,
Responsively to such a knell!
The land your sword was drawn to save,
Now sighs above her soldiers' grave;
The Press your virtues dignified
Stands with fair flowers at her side;
The Muses whom your genius wooed,
Weeping, come up from every wood,
While Poverty, with wringing hands,
And cheek forlorn, among them stands,
Crying, "To whom the poor were dear—
"Nature's own nobleman lies here!"
And Friendship sobs, "I knew him well.
"From social hour to battle's knell,
"A purer heart, a braver soul
"Shall never live while ages roll!"
"Make way!" Religion softly cries,
With heavenly smile and lifted eyes,
"He is not dead—they cannot die,
"Who thus write their own history!"

*Col. McMahon was a convert to the Catholic faith.

ARNELL.

Testimony Implicating Arnell in the "School Fund" Robbery.

In the House yesterday Mr. Taylor, of Carter and Johnson, Chairman of the School Fund Investigating Committee, submitted some additional testimony, of which the following is a synopsis:

J. J. NOAH, SWORN.

Q.—State what you know with regard to the sum of $500 having been presented to Mr. Arnell by Mr. Rutter.

A.—Mr. Arnell stated to me that the sum of $500 had been lodged by Mr. Rutter in Mr. Mullins' hands for the purpose of making that sum a present to him (Arnell). He desired to ask my advice as to the acceptance of this sum. This was while Mr. Arnell was a Representative in the General Assembly. I inquired if the sum was intended as a fee for attorney's services, to which Mr. Arnell replied that he thought not. I then counseled him not to receive the said amount, as it might be improperly construed. Mr. Arnell stated that he concurred in my view, but that there was nothing wrong in the affair. Subsequently Mr. Arnell requested me to see Col. Mullins and desire him (Mullins) to pay the $500 over to E. P. Cone, which I did. Mr. Mullins seemed surprised at my knowing anything about it, but stated that he would comply with Mr. Arnell's request. What became of the $500 I have no knowledge. I subsequently told Mr. Cone what had transpired about the payment of this $500 to him.

I desire to state that Mr. Arnell's conversation with me about the $500 was stated by him to be confidential, but was not placed before me as his lawyer—simply as his friend. I therefore give this evidence unvoluntarily.

H. S. FRENCH, COTTON AND COMMISSION MERCHANT, SWORN.

Witness was sworn at his warehouse on Clark street, a letter purporting to be from S. M. Arnell, dated at Washington, D. C., and addressed to Dr. D. A. Davidson. Thought this was about December, 1867. Gathered from the letter the following facts: That $5000 had been remitted from Memphis to Dr. Davidson for Arnell, and that the money came from the man who took the School Fund to Memphis. Also gathered from the letter that Arnell was expecting to get $5000 or $10,000, at Washington, for supporting some measure—either on the impeachment matter, or the whisky tax, or some financial measure—that he and Davidson were then to go to banking, and that Arnell was in this manner to procure his part of the fund necessary to carry on a bank.

GEORGE W. GOODWIN, CLERK FOR MR. FRENCH, SWORN.

Was present when Dr. Davidson was in the warehouse. Saw the letter, but did not read it. Gathered from the conversation between Mr. French and Dr. Davidson that the $5000 obtained by Arnell from Memphis was either a part of the School Fund or in some way connected with it. Dr. Davidson was speaking of establishing a bank in Columbia.

JAMES IRWIN AND F. A. IRWIN,

of this city, substantiated the statements made by Messrs. French and Goodwin.

DR. DAVIDSON, OF MAURY COUNTY, SWORN.

Was about the Legislature in the spring of 1866. Arnell had borrowed money of him, and tried to get some money from the People's Bank, but failed. Was subsequently notified by Arnell that $5000 would be expressed to witness for him (Arnell), the understanding of witness being that the money was to come from Rutter's bank. This money was subsequently handed to witness by Arnell, on the Public Square, at Columbia, and witness paid the greatest part of it out satisfying debts owing to himself and others by Arnell. Witness showed Mr. H. S. French a letter from Arnell about the time mentioned by Mr. French in his testimony.

—The gas issuing from rock crevices on the western line of Pennsylvania, along the Ohio river, has been ignited, and superstitious people think it is the final conflagration.

—The Canton (Ohio) Republican proposes to make a velocipede with rimmed wheels, so that it can be run at the rate of a hundred miles an hour on a single rail of a railroad. In case of meeting a lightning train, wouldn't it be very bad for the bicycle?

—"Aw!" exclaimed an English cockney to a Western traveler in England, "speaking aw of the law of primogeniture, 'ave you hentail in Amerwica?" "Hentail," said the American, looking at him with curiosity; "no sir. We have the cocktail in America, and a very popular drink it is."

—Among the books which have had the largest sales in this country are: Albert Barnes' "Notes on the New Testament," of which half a million copies have been sold; Macaulay's "History of England," 1,000,000 copies; Jacob Abbott's works, 1,500,000; Headley's works, 250,000, and Spurgeon's works, 300,000.

—Sever & Francis, of Cambridge, announce for the 15th, "Arne and Other Tales," by Bjorson. This has been published in London, and Leypoldt & Holt had arranged to publish it the same day with "The Fisher Maiden," but received Sever & Francis' notice the very day they were to send it to the printer—a most curious coincidence.

—Miss McVicker is nightly growing in favor as "Juliet." She is a conscientious, faithful, experienced and skillful actress. The part she has undertaken is one of the most difficult in which to satisfy the public. Indeed, it is just about impossible for any actress to realise to general satisfaction, Shakspeare's "Juliet."

—There must be some very mean persons in Boston, if we believe what the Traveller says of a class there who are so economical that instead of eating a first-class meal at a restaurant, are in the habit of buying a roll, then make a visit to an eating saloon, call for a small dish of butter and a cup of coffee or tea, making the total cost of their "repast" less than fifteen cents.

—An extraordinary party was lately given by Mr. Sevy, proprietor of the London Daily Telegraph. His large garden was covered over, and made to represent "the Alhambra." His wife presided at a drinking bar, made to resemble the original; and the dancing, the tables here and there, and the groups were likewise on the Leicester square model.

—A recent French letter says: "A tone of melancholy has been noticed in the Emperor's recent speeches. New Year's day, in addressing the Archbishop of Paris, he spoke of religion teaching men how to die, and his opening speech to the Chambers was a vindication of his life and reign, and there was in it a quotation from Scripture." If he is really getting ready to die, he had better stop lying and repent of his sins.

—Hon. D. D. Pratt, the Senator elect from Indiana, in a private letter alludes to the errors which have crept into many journals concerning his birth-place, age, and size. Several papers stated that he is forty years old, and weighs 450 pounds. Mr. Pratt says that he was born in Palermo, Waldo county, Maine, 1813, and that his father, a physician, moved thence to the State of New York in 1815. The new Senator is six feet four inches high, and weighs 270 pounds.

—The Chicago Tribune says of Olive Logan: "Her shafts fly in all directions; she spares none, and shoots at folly as it flies, no matter whence it comes. Her voice is clear, ringing, well-modulated, and capable of inflection. She has more brains than beauty, yet she is not homely. Her face, somewhat Celtic in its outline, is pleasant and intellectual. Her form is tall and graceful, and the upper portion sways and bends at her pleasure. She is stage struck, and has not forgotten stage effects. Her acting, for she acts, would do credit to any boards."

—The Marquis d'Ourches, by his will, founded a prize of 20,000 francs for the discovery of a sure and simple means of recognizing if death be real or apparent. Dr. Carriere, says the French Courriere de l'Eure, intends to claim the money for a process which he has employed for forty years. This system consists in placing the hand, with the fingers closed, before the flame of a lamp or candle. In the living person the members are transparent and of a pinkish color, showing the capillary circulation and life in full activity; whilst in that of a corpse, on the contrary, all is dull and dark, presenting neither sign of existence nor trace of the blood current.

—Mlle. Schneider, the original and unrivaled representative of the Grand Duchess de Gerolstein, has just tried an action against a petty journal, La Veilleuse, which published memoirs purporting to be written by her, and giving minute accounts of interviews which the memoirs represented her to have had in the Exhibition year with various sovereigns and great personages. Mlle. Schneider disclaimed the authorship, and claimed 30,000f. for damages to her character. The Court held the forgery proved, but was of the opinion that the damage to the character of Mlle. Schneider would be satisfied by sentencing the defendants to nominal fines and costs.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 17, 1869

COMMUNICATIONS and poetic contributions intended for the SUNDAY APPEAL must be handed in before Friday, noon. Advertisers will find it to their interest to avail themselves of the large and increasing circulation of the Sunday issue.

WE are pleased to greet once more the Augusta, Ark., Sentinel, revived in its usual neat typography, after a silence of two months, consequent upon the presence of CLAYTON's bummers. We wish it all success.

PERSONAL.

We have pleasure in announcing that Col. F. Y. ROCKETT, so long connected with the press of this city, has been appointed resident agent of the Mississippi Valley Navigation Company, of which our old friend Capt. DEHAVEN is President. Col. ROCKETT brings to the exercise of the functions of his new office a great degree of experience, a clear and active brain and a thorough comprehension of the objects of the Company he represents. We hope his labors will be abundantly rewarded, and that his many landed friends in this neighborhood will show their appreciation of him by subscribing liberally to make that a success which is just now but problematical. Capt. DEHAVEN deserves the fullest measure of public favor in this enterprise, which has the endorsement of many of the oldest and most experienced river men of the South.

INSANITY.

The schemers and plotters at Nashville, who have for a week past been laboring to invalidate the testimony of RUTTER, in the matter of the School Fund robbery, by a denial of his reliability, supported by the oaths of certain of their cronies here, have utterly failed, and now have recourse to the Philadelphia and New York dodge of charging him with insanity. They have determined to rid themselves of him in some way, and will, if the Conservatives are not very active, succeed. Was it a proof of insanity that RUTTER kept to himself the letters and checks of the corrupt legislators, to be used upon just such an opportunity as was afforded by the School Fund robbery investigation? We rather think not. Without them, he would long since have found permanent lodgings within the walls of the penitentiary. These have been his safeguard; and, we believe, as he told us, that he has other evidences not yet produced that would be more damning than any he has offered, but that its secrecy is the bond of his freedom.

LIFE INSURANCE.

In the APPEAL of Sunday, in explaining the origin of a special dispatch to a city cotemporary, so worded as to deal unjustly by the New York Insurance Companies, we stated that we understood this dispatch to have had its origin with the Connecticut Insurance Companies. This we have since learned is not the case. It had its origin in an article which appeared in the columns of the New York Tribune of Monday week, and which was successfully combated in the New York Times of the succeeding day. We make this correction in justice to the Eastern Companies, which, from some experience as to their working and character, we are able to say are, next to the Scotch and English Companies, more economically and skillfully directed than those of any other country. At the same time it must be said, to the credit of the Insurance Companies of the State of New York, that they are not only carefully managed but that by the operation of the general insurance law of that State the public is as thoroughly protected against the possibility of loss or misconduct as legislation can accomplish.

$500,000 IN BONDS—THE BEST THAT CAN BE DONE.

After the exhaustion of every effort possible to secure the amount of money necessary to carry the city successfully through and out of her present financial embarrassments, the Financial Committee reluctantly, last evening, appealed to the Board of Aldermen for the final passage of an ordinance, authorizing the issuance of $500,000 in bonds, to be used as collateral. In acceding to the demand of the committee so readily and unanimously, the City Council but did justice to their own intelligence. The members were personally cognizant of the hearty and indefatigable labors of Aldermen WOLCOTT and RENER, both of whom have been untiring in their zeal in behalf of the city. They knew, as we did, that these gentlemen left no stone unturned. That they had interviews with, and besought help from, every man in the city likely to be able to raise the sums needed, or any respectable approximate to them. In this work, engaging as it has nearly all their time for the past two weeks, they had the assistance of many members of the Board, ex-members and leading citizens. All have confessed failure, and willingly concede that in the issuance of bonds alone lies our financial salvation. This is the last and only resort. The people must, therefore, endorse the action of the Board, authorising them. For them to refuse, is to jeopardize their valuable railroad interests and involve other property in utter and entire loss. This they have already refused to do. They will, then, vote for the issuance of the bonds. By these, used as collateral only, the Finance Committee propose to relieve present embarrassment, pay all pressing and outstanding liabilities, advance the credit of the city, enhance her bonds by prompt payment of accruing interest, and hereafter insure her financial affairs entire immunity from the dangerous looseness that some time since characterized them. To save themselves the people must vote for the issuance of these bonds. The necessities of the poor employees of the city, no less than justice to her honest and lenient rich creditors demand it.

JOHNSON.

The mere mention of the name of the patriot President in connection with the office of Governor of Tennessee has the effect to excite the fury and the rage of the Radical press of the State. The organ of the party in this city was last evening especially vindictive and unjust. Among other things it charges President JOHNSON with having

"Practiced such shameless corruption as made even shameless Washington ashamed. He filled the White House with debauchery, drunkenness and profanity. He appointed and kept in office a crew of thieves and robbers who have almost exhausted the Treasury and crippled the finances of the nation."

Nothing could be farther from the truth. Even HORACE GREELEY confessed that "whatever else might be said of JOHNSON, he could not be charged with corruption or conniving at it." The White House was occupied, as the world knows, by the family of the President, comprising his children and grandchildren; and we venture to say that a more cultured, simple and unobtrusive family circle never gathered, even in the White House. The general testimony is that Mr. JOHNSON was characterized during his whole term as President, by sobriety and the most assiduous attention to the duties of his office. Of this fact, at least for several months, we are able to bear personal testimony. As for the "thieves" who have bled the treasury, we have only to suggest that he has time and again attempted to rid the Government of them, and when about to succeed, even against the clamors of Congress, he was only prevented by the passage of the tenure-of-office bill, by which ROLLINS and others of that kind were retained in their places.

Mr. JOHNSON can afford to leave the justification of his administration to the future historian. His every act was measured by the Constitution; and his every aim the good of his countrymen, regardless of the terrible war, the consequences of which told upon his temper and endurance, sometimes to the impatient expression of vengeance, but had no effect to mar the spirit of conciliation, forbearance and forgiveness that always characterized him towards those whom he regarded as his erring brethren. Mr. JOHNSON's reputation is beyond the power of injury even by the whole Radical party combined.

SENSIBLE ADVICE TO FARMERS.

Our Ashley county (Ark.) contemporary, in an article of some length, last week, asked for some reasons why the farmers of the South should not plant wholly in cotton, as before the war. We find the following in the Farmer, so full of sense and good judgment, and, withal, so abundant in the reasons asked for by our contemporary, that we make room for it, endorsing it to our farmer readers as especially worthy their attention:

The cotton crop of 1867 was an accident. It was not a large crop. With ordinary prices it would have been a failure, and under ordinary circumstances, even the prices it now commands, could not have more than saved the planters. But the planters were extraordinarily situated. They had been compelled to raise something else besides cotton. They had to carry themselves. For the lack of credit, they were forced to work on the cash principle. This fact, and this fact alone, accounts for the splendid results of the crop when sold. It did not all go off to pay borrowed money, or to buy supplies. It was owned at home, and there it stays. In 1868, cotton was a secondary crop, and the consequence was, it paid better than ever before. Had cotton been, as it has so often been, the main leading crop, on which the entire strength of the planter was expended, the supply would have been much larger, the prices much less, and, worst of all, the entire profits would have gone off to buy something to eat. As it was, getting their own bread, they have put their cotton money in their pockets.

Now the danger is, and it is a very serious danger, that under the excitement of the present high prices and the natural desire to reap a big reward, the planters and farmers may pitch large cotton crops, and again fall into the fatal error of neglecting to provide bread, relying on the success of the crop of cotton to furnish money enough to buy. If such should be the effect of the success of 1868, then that success will turn out a curse instead of a blessing. A curse more direful than any that has yet been visited on the South. The true policy, the only policy in which there is any reason, is that every man shall first and foremost, secure beyond all accident, a full supply of provisions. This done let him put in a small area of cotton. Let him manure and work this cotton thoroughly, and the result will be more permanent profit than ten times the cotton, grown to the neglect of provisions.

If anything additional to the above be needed to prove the soundness of the position of the APPEAL, we have but to suggest the general condition of the farmers of the North and West, whose prime care is for family and self—their next for the great public. The consequence is they have fruits and vegetables in abundance, milk and butter, and all those good things which pass under the denomination of the "fat of the land." They live well—better than any people in the world—and are thoroughly independent. In these respects they will do to copy after."

THE PROSPECT IN CONNECTICUT.

From all quarters of Connecticut we have the most encouraging reports of the prospects of Democratic success in the spring. In commenting upon this theme, the New Haven Register says: "The party is thoroughly united upon "the ticket and the platform, and determined upon victory. There is not a "discordant word to be heard thoughout "our ranks. The contest on the part of "our friends will be a very different affair from that of November. The October elections settled the Presidential "election, and it is therefore a wonder "that the Democracy polled as large a "vote as they did. Now, we enter the "contest under more encouraging auspices."

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.

Richelieu was rendered last night by Mr. FRANK MAYO to a not very large, but a select and appreciative assemblage. Seldom, we are persuaded, has it been accorded an audience to see so many of the roles of this great production of BULWER's, filled so nearly by the authors ideal of the character. The cast throughout could scarcely have been improved, and we regret that it would require more time and space than we can conveniently accord to it to-night, to give the performance the notice it merits. Mr. MAYO's conception of the character of Richelieu is, we think, almost perfect, and his renderings of certain portions of the play exquisite. His voice is one peculiar charm of his acting, and has a something about it, even in the forced imitation of age, which thrills the hearer through. The acting of Mr. THEO. HAMILTON, as de Mauprat, Mr. MURRAY, as de Barradas, Mrs. LANAGAN, as Julia de Mortemore, and Mr. MALMBURG, as Louis XIII, were, in our opinion, scarcely inferior in any respect to the best that we have ever seen in the respective roles. The whole entertainment was one that the most hypercritical could find no fault with. To-night Shylock, with a full cast, promises to be an equally finished performance.

THE CONSTITUTION IGNORED.

The Constitution of the State provides that—

"The Legislature shall appoint a day for holding the election of Judges and Attorneys-General, separate and apart from the days already prescribed, or hereafter prescribed by the Legislature for holding the election for State and county officers."

The Legislature ignoring this provision of its organic law have declared and provided—

"For the election of Judges and Attorneys-General, by the qualified voters of the State, on the first Thursday in August next, being the same time that the election for Governor and members of the Legislature will be held."

This violation of the Constitution is plainly a Radical scheme, accomplished with a view to bring the judiciary within reach of the negro element; and is the only thing wanting to a complete degradation of the bench of the State. What next?

The speech is in substance as follows: The Queen assures the Lords and Commons that the relations of Great Britain with all foreign powers are at present on an excellent footing—the hostilities which threatened to break out in the East have been prevented by the Conference of the great powers at Paris, and the hope is expressed that the negotiation with the United States will place on a firm and durable basis the friendship which should ever exist between England and America. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 16.

A resolution was passed for the appointment of a committee of three on inauguration ceremonies.

Drake presented the credentials of Carl Schurz, Senator elect from Missouri.

Morrell, from the Committee on Finance, reported with an amendment to the House bill forbidding National banks to certify to stocks not drawn.

Committee reported a substitute to the House bill regulating report of National Banking Association. The substitute providing that in lieu of all reports now required by section 34 of the Currency Act, every association shall make to the Comptroller of Currency not less than four reports each year, according to a form presented, verified by the oath of the President or Cashier, and signed by at least three directors, and made up to any past day specified by the Comptroller. The reports are to be published in one newspaper of the locality of the respective bank, and a penalty of five thousand dollars is prescribed for each day's delay after five days in makieg them.

Mr. Sumner moved to take up the joint resolution giving a pension to Mrs. Lincoln, which was carried. He then moved to fill up the blank with the words, "Five thousand dollars."

The report of the "Committee on Pensions" was read, setting forth that they see no legal ground on which Mrs. Lincoln's request can be granted.

The pension is bitterly opposed by many representative Democratic members.

A strong effort was made to take up the Tenure-of-office bill, pending which, the Senate went into executive session, and soon after took a recess.

HOUSE.

A bill passed to prevent the loaning of money on United States bonds. Also a bill for the relief of Leonard Pierce, late Consul at Matamoros, by refunding him $11,000, paid during the war.

A bill was introduced to publish a Congressional record daily from the 4th of March next, for each member of the House and Senate, and a large number of bound volumes for the use of both Houses. Referred.

A bill was reported from the Reconstruction Committee removing disabilities from a large number of persons in the Southern States, and passed by 130 to 48, the Speaker voting in the affirmative.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill reported Saturday from the Committee on Banking and Currency, supplementary to the National Bank Bill.

Pomeroy moved the previous question on the bill and amendments. It was seconded with the understanding that the vote be taken to-morrow.

The House took a recess till evening for the consideration of the Internal Revenue bill.

EVENING SESSION.

The tax bill was adopted to-night after the adoption of several unimportant amendments.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, February 16.—Cotton dull and heavy. Sales 900 bales; Uplands 30c. Coffee quiet but firm. Sugar firm at 12¼@14c.

Money—Tennessee bonds lower; new 63¼@63½. Gold closed at 35.

The great feature of Wall street to day was the stringency of money and the depression caused in nearly every direction. Demand active throughout. Government dealers were generally accommodated at 7c., and in some cases were tenders themselves. Stock brokers paid 7 currency to 7 gold, and in a few instances a commission of 1½c was added to legal rates in currency. In the gold room, brokers paid 6 per cent. to have their gold carried. This sudden change in the money market caused, by a combination of leading bears in gold, stocks, etc., to lock up greenbacks and depress their value. The recent sharp rise in governments, caught some parties largely short, who made common cause with confederates in gold and stock markets. The action of certain bank officials, says the Express, was very suspicious, and it is believed they are interested in a new bear speculation. Sterling weak and unsettled. Prime bankers 8¾@9c. Gold 8½. Sight bills 9⅛@9½.

The steamer Geo. W. Cheek, in her down trip last Sunday had as passengers a company numbering sixty-six men, of Clayton's jayhawking cavalry, on their way from Osceola to Jacksonport, where they are to be "mustered" out. When opposite Island 35, the Cheek stopped at a little bayou, and a man named John Davis, better known as Gunboat Davis, got on board.

Shortly after the boat got under way, Davis and one of the militia got into a discussion of the murder of Baugh (a detail of which we gave some weeks ago). Davis, who it appears knew Baugh, and was cognizant of the hideous circumstances under which he was murdered, spoke of his death in denunciatory terms. A gentleman—one of the officers of the boat—overhearing the conversation, and apprehending that it would lead to trouble, went to Davis and advised him to stop the conversation—advice that Davis took at the time.

When the boat reached Mound City, which was at about one o'clock Monday morning, the militia, finding they could not make a close connection at Memphis, but would have to lie over several days, determined to remain there, and accordingly went ashore. The Cheek was consequently delayed for some minutes, and Davis foolishly went ashore.

While standing on the bank he was approached by the men to whom he had been talking, and the same subject was again commenced. The lieutenant was present who claimed to have had charge of the party who murdered Baugh, and he persisted in talking about the murder, asserting that he was right, that Baugh deserved all he got, and if he had a chance he would do the same thing over. The gentleman who warned Davis before, stepped up to him and addressed him again, telling him to stop the conversation.

On this, Davis dropped the conversation and walked on board the Cheek, but as he did so, he was followed by two of the militia, armed with muskets and bayonets, arrested and carried on shore. Here they demanded his money, and Davis refused to give it up, (having none, in truth, but not telling this fact to them). After a second or third demand, one of the ruffians raised his gun and shot Davis through the left breast above the heart, the ball passing through and coming out under the shoulder blade, making a dangerous if not fatal wound.

Davis was immediately cared for by his friends, and everything done for him that could be. The Cheek went back up the river last evening, and if she finds him in a condition to move, will convey him home.

Meanwhile, the commanding officer of the militia is said to have had the perpetrators of the outrage arrested, and has promised that justice will be meted out to them.

Pearne, yesterday sent a lot of tracts and miniature copies of Job, Proverbs and Psalms, around to each Stationhouse, with instructions to the officers to distribute them among the men of their command. The pamphlets and books were distributed as directed, and last evening the squads could be seen drilling by Nebucuadnezzar's tactics, and singing psalms against time for drinks all around town. One party that we know of went into a certain ungodly place where they sell 'spirits' and happening to lay his books on the counter, the barkeeper grabbed them, and held them on account.

CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

Message of His Honor the Acting Mayor.

The Bond Ordinance Passed on its Final Reading.

General Transaction of Business.

On motion of Alderman Cartwright, Alderman Moffet was called to the chair, and a quorum being present, the secretary proceeded to read a message from Acting Mayor Judge Swayne. From its extreme length, we can only give the following synopsis:

He informs the Board that he had not complied with the instructions to advertise for proposals to clean the Nicholson, because the resolution omitted to prescribe the manner of cleaning, for what length of time, etc. He refers the subject back for further and more definite action, and suggests that the whole matter be carefully considered and covered by one ordinance.

The Sanitary Department having reported numbers of non residents and others for non-compliance with paving ordinances, and considerable misunderstanding existing as to the obligations of property owners in this respect, His Honor reports that he has referred the whole affair to the City Attorney. His reply is communicated with the message. In the case of non-residents whose agents could not be found, the matter is referred to the Board.

The subject of obtaining parks for the lately added rural districts is alluded to and a hope expressed that the Board will take some immediate action on it. One citizen, Wm. A. Beckford, Esq., is mentioned as being ready to donate a large and very beautiful tract for a park under certain conditions.

The receipt of a communication from the Chair, of the Executive Committee of Tennessee River Improvement, covering a proclamation from the Governors of the States of Tennessee, Georgia, Missouri, Iowa, Alabama and Kentucky, recommend that the cities of the Tennessee Valley be represented in a Conference at Chattanooga on the 24th of the present month. As the city of Memphis is interested, he recommends that delegates be sent, and says no doubt some well informed citizens would take pleasure in representing the city on that occasion.

Some of our citizens, as taxpayers, forming themselves into a public organization (it may or may not be, of doubtful utility, however proper the ostensible ends in view,) have set forth in their published constitution concerning the finances of the city and county, among other things that they believe "a system of reckless expenditure, waste, and extravagance has been pursued for several years," which must include the present and last past corporate years. Coming from a source altogether respectable, and from which correct information should be expected, the suggestion acquires importance and claims your attention; for if true as to the city, you merit the public execration, and if not true the recklessness must consist only in the allegation and its injustice to the Board and city authorities. On the contrary, during the past and present years, the city has practiced a most marked economy, has made every possible reduction in expenditures in one department alone (the Fire Department), reducing expenditures from $300,000 to $57,000, and excepting the interest on its former indebtedness and expenditures consequent on the Nicholson pavement, inaugurated anterior to that time, the current expenditures last year do not exceed $175,000, and for the present year so far, not $14,000; and the objects to which the city Boards applied were not of our creating (whether a subject of just animadversion or not), yet it was ours to provide for them."

The matter of the city finances were then taken up as follows:

The matter of the city finances continues to be the absorbing interest. Since your action at the last regular meeting of the Board, passing an ordinance for the issuance of additional bonds as collaterals, upon which to obtain money for the necessities of the city the present year, it was hoped that through the diligent and faithful efforts of the Finance Committee, who have the subject in hand, that the necessary funds would be obtained without the unfortunate and extreme necessity of increasing the already too large bonded indebtedness, although that were but to change and postpone to such extent the form of the existing liabilities. Those efforts failing, however, it devolves upon you, so far as you may with the exercise of the discretion conferred on you by the law and the people, to complete the necessary steps to maintain inviolate, the good faith and credit of the city, which in the past year by the sagacity and anxious zeal of the Board and Finance Committee then organized, have been advanced, in a manner most honorable to the city, at home and abroad. You may enter in the pleading assurance, however, embarrassing our present condition for the want of money (which the unpaid revenue would materially supply) that a year or two will suffice with the same faithfulness hereafter as heretofore, to relieve the city of the old burthens under which she still labors, largely, yet decreasingly; and which, when altogether out of the way, will allow us the full use of the current taxes for the current expenditures, the one corresponding in amount with the other. And, to this desirable end, you will permit me respectfully to commend to you as a Board the continued observance and practice of the most rigid public money and credit, consistently with the absolute necessities of the city. And our citizens, interested in the honor and credit of the city, in view of the circumstances, ought to be forbearing and considerate, for the time being, in their expectations and demands upon the finances; and, so far as they are not so, it is your duty, as her lawful guardians, with resolute purpose, to insist upon the necessity of economy, and to make such expenditures only as are indispensable to the city, and absolutely required to guard it against penal prosecutions and ruinous suits for damages. We have no discouraging future before us as a city, but, on the contrary, one full of hope and promise, if true to ourselves. By the faithful administration of our city affairs; by obedience to and strict enforcement of law and order, thereby inviting and securing safety to capital, enterprise and labor from abroad; by fostering industry in all its branches, and education, by extending and completing our necessary railroad lines and connections, situated as we are on the great practicable highway between the oceans; on the banks of the great river removed from material competition North or South; in the midst of the most productive country, and having the most salubrious climate on the earth, cultivating harmony among all classes of our people, and co-operating together, we may reasonably expect to realize a destiny that shall fill every citizen with satisfaction and just pride. J. T. SWAYNE, Mayor pro tem.

On motion the message was received and filed.

A requisition for 100 barrels of coal to the City Hospital was granted.

The reports of Standing Committees being in order, Alderman Durff, of the Ordinance Committee, reported adversely to the ordinance about cheap jewelry stores. Adopted. In favor of the ordinance that no officer collecting revenue shall disburse the same, was adopted—and the ordinance adopted on its second and final reading. The committee reported an ordinance covering the ground, requested by Gen. Upton, in regard to selling liquor to soldiers. The ordinance affixes a fine of not less than $5 or more than $25, for each and every offence. Ordinance adopted on first reading, but a suspension of the rules being objected to, it was referred back to the Ordinance Committee for further action.

Alderman Cicalla, of the Gas Committee, reported eleven out of the thirty oil lamps put up by the city as stolen.

Alderman Black, of the Paving Committee, reported an ordinance causing the streets and allies to be swept twice a week in dry weather, and scraped in wet—the work to be done by contract as specified. Passed on first reading and referred to Ordinance Committee.

Petitions being in order, Alderman Gallagher wanted a pond, in the Sixth ward, that was seriously damaging the health of Mr. Levi, filled up. Gallagher made a beautiful speech, and called up Mr. Levi to enforce the points made. "Hyr's Misther Leevi—come yir! Mr. Leevi! Its a makin' him sick, y'r honor. Luk at his aymayshiated forum!" It did not go down, however, and the motion was referred to the Improvement Committee.

A communication from Mr. Venable, about $5000 in bonds due him, on an order from Mayor Leftwich, was referred to the Finance Committee.

RESOLUTIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

being in order, Alderman Vincent introduced a resolution that the Street Commissioner be allowed to increase his force to twenty-five men. Adopted.

By the same: Resolved, That all supplies purchased hereafter for the use of the city be paid for in tax credits. Tabled.

Alderman Renner moved that the ordinance passed at the last meeting, authorizing the issuance of five hundred thousand dollars in bonds, be now taken up and passed on its second and final reading.

The secretary read the ordinance, and it was passed on its second and final reading. The ordinance is, therefore, now a law.

Alderman Gallagher introduced a resolution that the Mayor be empowered to employ two assistants, one for the Comptroller, and one for the City Tax Collector, at a salary of $125 per month each.

After some debate, in which several parties expressed the opinion that the help should be granted, the motion was referred to the special committee already appointed on this subject.

Alderman Durff offered a resolution, which was referred to the Finance Committee, that Capt. Marsh Miller be allowed interest on the $500 awarded him for damages.

By the same: A resolution opposing the increase looking to the possible decrease of the police force. Adopted.

Alderman Joyce introduced a resolution that hereafter all resolutions offered be referred to their proper committee before being adopted.

After some discussion the motion was lost by a vote of 9 to 8.

An ordinance to sell the paving stone belonging to the city was the occasion of a lively debate, participated in all round the Board, and was finally referred to the Improvement Committee.

Alderman Renner stated that there was certain things in the Mayor's message that ought to be attended to—he would therefore offer a resolution that the Mayor pro tem. be empowered to appoint gentlemen to represent the city of Memphis at the proposed Convention for the Improvement of the Tennessee river, at Chattanooga, provided the same can be done at no expense to the city.

Gallagher, who never loses an opportunity of showing what an ass he is, jumped up, as usual, and made two or three rambling remarks on the subject, winding up by announcing how he should vote.

The resolution was then adopted.

The chairman of the Finance Committee reported on several resolutions and petitions referred to them: On the request of the various officials for revolving calendars, adversely. Adopted. On the prayer of Robert Goode, Wharfmaster, for an assistant at $75 per month, favorably. Adopted. On the petition to relieve the tax-payers of the 5 per cent. extra, adversely. Adopted. On the petition of E. Holbrook for reclamation of coupons. The Committee report that the coupons have been found, and therefore no reclamation is needed.

Alderman Dyer stated that it is a well known fact that small pox is making ravages in other neighboring cities. He thought that some steps should be taken for a general vaccination of the people, as such a course had been adopted with great success in other cities. He offered a resolution looking to this end.

Alderman Gallagher wanted the matter referred to a committee of one Alderman from each ward.

Alderman Renner thought it best to be referred to a committee not so unwieldy, and wanted it referred to the Hospital Committee.

Gallagher was up again and talked away until Alderman Renner arose and said that he could not see what Gallagher was driving at. Nobody else could, either.

After much discussion it came to a vote on Gallagher's amendmet, and that individual was the only one who voted for it. The question was then put to refer to the Hospital Committee, and carried.

Alderman Vincent offered the following resolution;

Resolved, That the official paper of the city be required to publish all the proceedings of this Board the day following each meeting.

On a statement made that the official paper published the same gratis, the motion was withdrawn.

The Chair stated that the law expressly provided that the proceedings should be published within forty-eight hours after they were held.

Alderman Glancy requested the Chairman of the Finance Committee to state what arrangements had been made toward paying the firemen the money so long overdue them.

Alderman Walcott stated that the Committee were as yet unable to report, but hoped to do so at the next meeting.

The Board then adjourned.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

—Gen. Neely, of the Mississippi Central Railroad, was in town yesterday.

—After the 1st of next month, a double daily passenger service will be run by rail between New Orleans and New York, by way of Knoxville.

—Mr. Barney Hughes, pressman, telegraph man and railroad man, and good at either, has become connected with the Charleston Railroad, and will in future be a resident of our city.

—Col. Sam. Tate arrived in the city yesterday, having recovered from the recent spell of sickness which confined him to his bed, in Water Valley, for some time past.

—An adjourned meeting of the stockholders and officials of the Clarkesville and Waynesboro Railroad Company will be held at Nashville to-day, (Wednesday, 17th February).

—The town is full of Railroad and Express men, from northern and western cities, on their way back home, after the dissipation of Mardi Gras in New Orleans. Most of them have fearfully bad colds, and complain of feeling tired.

—A party of engineers, under the direction of Maj. E. F. Falconet, left Lebanon last Friday to survey the route for a railroad between that place and Murfreesboro. Maj. W. F. Foster and party are now surveying the route from Lebanon to Gallatin. The enterprise has been chartered as the Gallatin and Murfreesboro Railroad.

—It really does seem very hard to get at the figures paid by Mr. Norton, the late purchaser, for the New Orleans and Ohio Railroad. We have made two attempts and have failed, it seems, in getting it right. The sum was, we are now informed officially, three hundred and fifty thousand and one dollars.

—John R. Branner, late President of the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, who died recently, leaves a fortune, it is stated, of between $200 000 and $300,000; $10,000 of it to each of his brothers and sisters, some five or six in number, and the remainder to an only son.

—The motion for a new trial in the case of the steamboat Imperial and owners vs. the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, the owners of the boat having a few days since been awarded a judgment for $22,000 damages, was argued in the Circuit Court yesterday and allowed—the defendant to pay costs to the present time.

—The Mount Cenis tunnel is advancing rapidly. A few more months, and the railway lines of France and Italy will unite beneath a mountain 5300 feet high. It is slow work, as the tunnel has to be pierced through extremely hard greenish gray sandstone, mixed with quartz; 4300 feet were hollowed out last year. The tunnel is to be 39,700 feet in length; 29,800 feet of the work are already completed; the remaining 9900 will take about twenty seven or twenty-eight months to accomplish, so that by March or April, 1871, this stupendous work will probably be completed.

—A late number of a San Francisco paper stated a fact, showing how the business contingent upon the Pacific Railroad at that port is even now augmenting, and thus giving a measure of future value. We said that a line of steamers to Australia, via the Sandwich Islands, was considered as necessary on the completion of the railroad, and was being arranged. The trade of San Francisco with Australia and Hawaii has been $38,000,000 in fifteen years. The Sandwich Islands employ 1090 vessels of 373,000 tons, and the Australian 1095 vessels of 514,223 tons. From 1856 to 1868 the commerce in sugar to San Francisco alone grew from 550,000 to 20,000,000 pounds. Steam communication would supply all of this to the Pacific road, as thereby it could be more speedily marketed.

—We understand that there is a project on foot, with every prospect of an early and vigorous commencement of the work, to connect the Mississippi and Tennessee, and the Memphis and Ohio Roads, by a road running along the levee. A grand, central depot for freight and passengers is to be erected at the Navy Yard, where the business of both roads is to be transacted. The roads to be thus connected will undertake to do all the grading and other work necessary at their own expense. We do not know amid the many railroad enterprises just now on the tapis a more important project, or one which if carried out will result more to the benefit, not only of the two roads concerned in it, but of the city of Memphis. We hope that the gentlemen who have the matter in hand will not fail to shove it through as quickly as possible.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Condensed Report of Saturday's Proceedings.

NASHVILLE, February 13, 1869.

Senate.

The Senate met at ten a.m., Speaker Senter in the chair, and seventeen members present.

THE NEW STATE.

The resolution introduced by Senator Mathews, to erect a new State out of East Tennessee, to be composed of thirty-one counties, was taken up.

Mr. Fuson thought that the resolution was striking at the very vitals of the State Government, and moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Federal Relations. Carried.

THE SCHOOL FUND.

The committee appointed to investigate and ascertain the aggregate amount of school fund in the State, reported through its chairman, Mr. Smith.

There being some objection to the incompleteness of the report, Mr. Lindsley offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the report be referred to the joint select committee, with instructions to report the counties in which county schools have been put in operation, the names of the County Superintendents, the date of their appointment, and the amount paid to each superintendent.

Adjourned until Monday at ten o'clock.

House.

The House met at 10 a. m., Mr. Prosser, Speaker pro tem. in the chair, and fifty-six members present.

PAY OF WITNESSES.

By Mr. Reeves: Resolution providing for the payment of the witnesses in the school fund investigation. Referred to Committee on Finance and Ways and Means.

ARNELL.

Mr. Taylor, of Carter and Johnson, from the School Fund Investigation Committee, submitted additional evidence, taken in the case of S. M. Arnell.

THE NEW STATE.

By Mr. Thornburg, of Grainger: A bill providing for the erection of a new State of East Tennessee out of the counties embraced in the division of the State known as East Tennessee.

Considerable discussion ensued as to the reference of the bill. It was finally, on motion of Mr. Hacker, referred to a special joint committee of five, on the part of the House, and —— on the part of the Senatd.

PROTECTION OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Mr. Hacker called up Senate bill for the protection of stockholders in railroads, on third reading. Passed, ayes 41, noes 17.

THE CHARGES AGAINST SPEAKER RICHARDS.

The special order, which was the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the charges against Speaker Richards, as contained in the report of the School Fund Investigating Committee, was taken up.

Mr. Hacker made an elaborate speech on the merits of the question. He began by tracing the foundation and purposes of the School Fund, referred to its removal South during the war, and detailed with much minuteness the means by which, after its partial recovery and investment in United States bonds, a scheme had been concocted at Washington and carried out here during the last General Assembly for its employment. The Tennessee National Bank had been organized and put in operation for this distinct purpose. He argued, citing authorities to sustain his conclusions that the House had ample power to expel a member for offenses committed during a preceding session of the Legislature. Mr. Hacker read very freely from the sworn testimony of Rutter and Parham, testimony, which, he contended, was amply sufficient to convict Mr. Richards of corrupt complicity in the School Fund embezzlement. Referring to Parham, he said that when that gentleman found that his letters to Rutter were in the hands of the Committee, he exclaimed in my present position for all the national banks of Tennessee." Parham's testimony has never been impeached. He does not contradict himself once, and yet he broadly swears he gave a consideration to Richards, Arnell and others to secure their votes. At the conclusion of his speech, Mr. Hacker submitted the following telegram as going to show that some of the most substantial men in Memphis were willing to testify that Rutter could be believed on oath:

MEMPHIS, TENN., Feb. 13.—To George R Rutter: F. S. Davis, President First National Bank; W. H. Cherry, President Merchants' National Bank; Jesse Page, President Commercial Bank; Jno. B. Robinson, an old citizen, and others, stated to me yesterday that they would readily believe you on oath. They and a hundred others among the prominent citizens here would testify to this effect. R. L. DALTON.

Mr. Bosson followed in a labored effort to prove that Mr. Richards was not guilty. His remarks took a wide range, and were extended to a late hour.

Mr. Doughty moved the previous question, which was sustained. The vote was then taken on the motion to concur with the report of the committee which recommended the rejection of the resolution calling for Mr. Richards' expulsion. The following is the vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Agee, Allen, Baker, Brown, Blackman, Bosson, Cagle, Cason, Cordell, Doughty, Dowdy, Dyer, Galbraith, Gilmore, Hale, Hamilton, Jordan, Kerchival, Lillard, Myers, McKinley, Morris, Mason, Pucket, Porter, Prosser, Priestwood, Ryder, Robinson, Singletary, Sheppard, Sparkman, Taylor, Thornburg of Grainger, Woodcock and Williams—36.

Noes—Messrs. Anderson, Bowles, Griffith, Grayson, Hunt, Hacker, Inman of Cocke, Inman of Knox and Sevier, McFall, Murray, Mynatt, Pitts, Reeves, Reed, Roddy, Smith, Stone, Taylor of Carter, and Johnson, White of Greene, and Waters—20.

Mr. Prosser then invited Mr. Richards to take the Chair, he having been reinstated in the Speakership.

Mr. Richards, on resuming his seat in the Chair, briefly remarked that at some future time he would take occasion to review the case and speak at length in his own vindication, but for the present, thanking the House, he would simply say, "Let us have peace."

Adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

THE CHAMPION.—Not the "champion of the light weights" or "heavy weights," but the Champion Wrought Iron Oven Cooking Stove. It is a "champion" in every way—of durability, beauty of shape, excellence of material used, simplicity and commodiousness. The Champion is made of the best quality of Hanging Rock charcoal iron. As to durability, the Champion is superior to all others; it is made to last, and with proper care will do the cooking of a family through a generation. It is simplicity itself; it has but one damper—a sliding one on top of the stove, and with it the heat of the ovens is instantly regulated. The oven is of wrought iron, and the Champion is the only stove that is made that way. The flues are larger and deeper than any other stove, and will not choke up; the reservoir is ensmeled and cannot rust; the flue runs through the side of the stove, instead of through the boiler as is customary, thereby making the stove portable; the fire chambers are constructed particularly with an eye to Southern wants, and big sticks of wood—in fact, as we have said, the stove is the champion, and defies competition in any particular. A host of witnesses in our midst have used it, and testify to this fact. It is for sale exclusively by H. Wetter & Co., 13 and 15 Monroe street, Memphis, Tenn. †

CONSUMPTION CURED.

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh.

NOW, when every change of weather tends to aggravate these insidious and fatal diseases; now, while there is yet life and hope, be not lured by the old and oft repeated promise that you will be better in the Spring; be not deceived into taking more of the poisonous mixtures into your stomach, but at once go to headquarters, employing the only sure and Rational Method of Cure, which is directed to the very spot through the air which you breathe. The Atomized Medico Ærien System, which reduces specific remedies to warm air, that you can sit in your room at home and inhale—draw in with every breath, to and through the diseased organs. Get immediate relief—have the disease arrested in twenty minutes, and cured permanently in a short time. Go to Dr. JONES at once, while you have the opportunity, and before it is too late. By this Rational and pleasant system, the diseases of the Respiratory Organs are more easily controlled than the diseases of any other organs of the human system.

Symptoms of Chronic Catarrh, by Dr. J. A. Jones.

1st—Of the Head—heavy, dull aching over the eyes—sometimes extending back through different parts of the head, and causing a weight, or heat, or coldness on top of the head, snapping and cracking noise in the ears, dullness of hearing—often the secretion collects in the middle ear, closing up the eus achion tubes, producing deafness—the lining membrane being the same from the head through the whole admentary canal and down into the lungs, it has but to extend itself to affect the whole system. It becomes VIRULENT in the nose, sometimes causing a tenderness or producing offensive breath, discharges of yellowish matter, and scabs the shape of the nostril; or if the partition bone only is affected, the ISCHARS are flat, and when they discharge, which is generally after exertion, the nose is open, the patient breathes more easy, and the head feels more clear—the heaviness over the eyes and across the forehead is seldom entirely gone, but is aggravated by every fresh cold. The offensive smell for which the unfortunate chews many kinds of drugs to neutralize or destroy, and thereby be enabled to go into society without being a positive nuisance, which persons of both sexes are, on account of this barbarous and offensive disease called OZÆNA, which has now assumed a TERTIARY form of Cancer, destroying everything but the outside skin, letting the nose sink in, extending to the throat, destroying the voice, etc., when the disease is called Laryngytis, Tracheitis, Bronchitis, etc.

Symptoms of the Throat, Etc.

A collection of tenaceous or slimy secretion falling down into the throat and thrown out—tickling, rasping, hoarseness and scraping to keep open the wind pipe—difficult breathing—oppression and soreness under the breast bone—tenderness in the left side—rheumatic pains between the shoulders—stiff neck on taking cold—palpitation of the heart—torpid liver—sometimes yellow complexion—general dull and heavy feeling—extreme shortness of breath—great soreness in stomach pit—bloated sensation—belching of wind—yawning, gaping—keeping mouth open to breathe—distress—sleepless nights, worse when lying down; and it now either terminates in Consumption of the Lungs, or follows the mucous membrane through the whole alimentary and urinal canal, causing dyspepsia, costiveness, piles, inflammation of the bladder, trouble in the urinary organs—(and in women nearly the whole train of female diseases) and general consumption, emaciation, complete prostration, etc., with all of which, and many other symptoms called by twenty different names, the sufferer may exist A WHILE.

Persons afflicted with Catarrh can secure treatment by making known the above symptoms with which they are afflicted, and enclosing $40; but if their disease extends to the throat or lungs, the course will cost from $100 to $300, according to the stage, with Steam Atomizer, and all complete for a course of medicine for four months. This course is as certain to cure or greatly benefit as two and two make four, and is pleasant to use, produces IMMEDIATE relief, and can be used by the patient at home better than any where else. DR. JONES.

DR. JONES—Sir: For six years my son was very much afflicted with Ozoena or Catarrh in the nose. I had tried various remedies, and had placed him under several different kinds of treatment, but the disease steadily progressed, and I had almost despaired of his being cured, when I chanced to read a notice of Dr. Jones' successful treatment of Catarrh. He was then stopping for a time in Columbus, Ohio, near which city I then resided, and though I had little faith, thought I would make one more effort for my son's relief; and he immediately began taking Dr. Jones' medicines, and continued to take them for six months—at the end of which time he was perfectly cured. There never has been, nor is there now at the lapse of two years, the least appearance of a return of the disease. SAMUEL BARR, Monroe County, Ala.

DR. JONES is now practicing at the Peabody Hotel, Memphis, Tenn., where he will remain until February 18th, 1869.

All letters must contain three red stamps.

Persons who cannot visit Dr. Jones can send for treatment by mail or express.

Dr. Jones in the future can be consulted at his Summer Home, Mansfield, Ohio, during the summer months.

Dr. Jones makes a specialty of the Eye, Ear, Throat and Lungs. Read his other advertisement in this paper. ja31

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, } MEMPHIS, February 16, 1869. }

FINANCE.

To-day has been a quiet one in money circles. Currency, of all denominations, is scarce, but particularly so in small bills. Some of our banks have been compelled to order change notes in order to supply the demand. Exchange is correspondingly plentiful, and the demand for it does not seem to be as active as last week. Rates vary as to the necessities of the buyer and seller, but are generally as follows:

	Buying.	Selling
New England	½@⅜ dis.	par@¼ dis.
New York	⅛ dis.	" @¼ "
St. Louis	½ "	" ⅛ "
Louisville	½ "	" ⅛ "
Cincinnati	½ "	" ⅛ "
New Orleans	¾ "	¼ prem.

Local Scrips are steady, with no demand except in a small way from tax-payers. Ledger balances are bought by dealers at 72@73c, and sold at 75@77c. City Scrip, proper, 75c buying; selling at 78@80c. County Warrants 75@76c, buying; selling at 78@80c. Police Scrip 95@96c, buying; selling 97@98c.

City Bonds are nominally unchanged. We quote at 52@53c, buying.

There is some movement in Memphis and Little Rock Railroad Bonds. We note a sale to-day at 67c, between dealers, and a demand for more at the same rate.

Gold in New York to-day opened at 135⅛, and closed at 135, carrying at 5@6 per cent. Sterling Exchange was dull and heavy at 109, for prime sixty day bills. Money active on call at 7 per cent., with a stringent market.

The Stock market to-day was dull at the opening. At noon it was very much unsettled, with some bidding at buyers' option, and closed irregular.

Wells & Fargo Ex., —; American Ex., 45; Adams' Ex., 64½; U. S. Goverments at the opening were off a little, in consequence of many holders realizing, but prices were generally firm and the market active, and at the noon call there was a heavy feeling, and closed irregular and very much unsettled in prices, with 5 20s of '67 scarce.

Pacific Sixes,	101½@101⅝

In this market all the Gold offered is taken at 134½; selling by dealers at 135@135½.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the Board, in our local columns, that the question of "Bonds" or "No Bonds" will be decided on the the 27th instant. As the issue of bonds seems to be the only way of working the city through its present difficulties, we think there can be no doubt of the result.

COTTON.

Cotton was declining in Liverpool to-day, at the opening, with Uplands 12¾d; Orleans 12½d. At 1:20 p.m. it was heavy. Upland 12d; Orleans 12¼d. Sales 6000 bales.

In New York, at the opening, the market was dull, and prices nominal. Low Middlings 28½c; Uplands 29½c; Mo-30½c. It was dull and nominal at noon; the same at 2:10 p.m., and the same at the close, with Uplands 29½c.

In New Orleans, at 11:30 a.m., the market was dull. Middlings 28½@29c; and at 2:15 p.m. was dull and nominal, with Middlings 28½c. Sales 2000 bales.

Our market was like the others—dull to the close. Some 600 or 800 bales changed hands upon a basis of 28c for Middlings. There were no buyers, except at their own figures, and no sales except forced ones. We quote the market as follows:

Ordinary	25 @26
Good Ordinary	26½@26¾
Low Middlings	27 @27½
Middlings	28 @
Strict Middlings	28½@29
Good Middlings	29½@

TRADE.

We have but little change to note in our general markets since yesterday, except the weakness in meats, alluded to below. The packets brought in large orders for supplies, and all went out with excellent trips. Our railroads also report business fully up to the capacity of the roads. With pleasant weather, an early spring, and the rapid approach of the planting season, we do not think that our business houses have anything to complain of concerning the immediate future.

There has been a great deal said about the apathy of our merchants regarding the Chamber of Commerce. Some of it was no doubt true, but much of it very unjust. We believe that in no city in the West has there been more liberality displayed than by the merchants of Memphis in this respect. All of them feel the necessity of keeping up the statistics of the Chamber; and, so far as we can learn, but two or three have refused to pay their fees. It will no doubt surprise those who held up other cities as superior to us in energy and enterprise to hear that the St. Louis Board of Trade is virtually defunct. The members would not pay up. The rooms of the Association have been given up, and quarters are now sought in hotel parlors. The Secretary's salary has been reduced to $600, and of this they owe $500.

GREEN APPLES are in fair demand, with light stock of choice. Selling at 6 to $7 50, as to quality.

We have no change to report in the BUTTER market. Choice is scarce, while good to common are in large supply. Prices range from 25 to 40c.

There is no change in BEANS. Market dull at 2 50 to $3 for mixed; Navy 3 50 to $4 per bushel.

The PROVISION market is weak, and holders are disposed to sell. The Des Arc brought in about 2000 Sides, in bulk, from White river. Several shipments have arrived this season from that quarter. MESS PORK is offered at $34 50, in a small way, and $34 in lots. Prime Mess 31 to $31 50. Extra Prime Pork 28 50 to $29. Rumps 28 to $28 50. Jowls 24 to $24 50. Clear Bulk Sides 17½ to 18c. Clear Rib 17 to 17½c. Rib Sides 16½ to 16½c. Shoulders 14 to 14½c. Hams 16 to 16½c. Bacon is in light supply. Clear Rib Sides 18¼ to 18½c. Shoulders 15½ to 15½c. Plain Sugar Cured Hams 19 to 20c. S.C. Shoulders 16 to 16½c. Lard is firm at 21 to 21½c. in Tierces; 22½ to 23c in Kegs.

In CHEESE we have no change to note to-day. Prices firm. Factory 21½ to 22½c; English Dairy 21 to 21½c; Western Reserve 20½ to 21c; English Gloster 23 to 24c.

The COFFEE market is fairly supplied, and prices are firm. Common to choice Rio, in a jobbing way, 20 to 26c. From firsthands in large lots, as follows: Ordinary, 18 to 18½c; Fair, 19½ to 20½c; Good, 21½ to 22½c; Prime, 23 to 23½c; Choice, 23¾ to 24c.

The FEED market is moderately active. Several lots of CORN sold on levee at 72 to 72½c; held at 77 to 80c in store, in a small way. OATS are firm at 78c on levee, and 83 to 85 in store. BRAN quiet at 24 to $25 per ton, in lots. HAY is firm at 26 to $27, from flatboat.

There is but a light demand for CORN-MEAL, but prices are firm. Full weight, on levee, $3 50; from store, 3 75 to $4.

The demand for DRIED FRUIT is active. Dried Apples, 7 to 9c; Peaches, 10 to 12c; Currants, 18 to 20c; layer Raisins per box, 4 50 to $4 75; half boxes, 2 90 to $3; quarter boxes, 1 75 to $2; Citron, 40 to 50c; almonds, 45 to 50c; Prunes, 20 to 25c.

EGGS are lower, with a good supply. We quote at 15 to 17c.

Low grades of FLOUR are in fair demand, and prices remain steady; while fancy Flours are dull, and have declined about 50c per barrel. We quote: Fine 6 50 to $6 75; Superfine 7 to $7 25; X, 7 50 to $8; XX, 8 50 to $9; XXX and Fancy brands, 9 50 to $12.

There is a demand for GRASS SEED of all desirable kinds. Clover is scarce at $11 per bushel. Blue Grass $3 25. Timothy $3 25. Orchard $2 25. Herds $2 Millet $3. Lucerne and White Clover 75c per lb.

There is a good demand for HIDES. Green, 9 to 9½c; Salt, 10 to 11c; Dry Salt, 19c; Dry Flint, 21c; Deer Skins, green, 15 to 16c; dry, 33 to 35c.

In IRON TIES we have no change to note. Selling at 6 to 7½c as to style.

Cape and Alabama LIME held at 2 to $2 25 per barrel. Utica 1 75 to $2. Louisville Cement 2 75 to $3.

In SUGARS and MOLASSES we have continued firmness to report, and demand active. Inferior Sugars 11 to 11½c; Fair 13½ to 14c; Fully Fair 14½ to 14½c; Prime 14¾ to 15c; Choice 15½ to 15¾c; Yellow Clarified 16 to 16½c; White Clarified 16¾ to 17c. Common Molasses 65 to 75; Choice 80 to 85c.

In PRODUCE prices are firmer, but not quotably higher. Peachblow potatoes 2 75 to $3 per bbl., by dray load; Russets 3 75 to $4; Pink-eyes 4 40 to $4 75; Early Goodrichs and London Ladys 5 to $5 50. By single barrel 25c higher.

The demand for POULTRY is more than equal to the supply and prices are firm. Turkeys 18 to $20. Geese 7 to $9. Ducks $5. Good Chickens 6 to $6 50.

In SALT there is no change. Stock fair; 280 lb bbls are held at $3 in lots on levee; from store, 3 10 to $3 25; in sacks from store, 2 75 to $3.

The STOCK market is about the same. We quote No. 1 beeves at 6 to 6½c gross, No. 2, 4 to 4½c; No. 3, 2½ to 3½c. The latter are in good supply. Sheep are not in demand—No. 1, $6 per head; inferior 3 50 to $4. HOGS are scarce at 10c gross, 13 to 13½c dressed; Milch cows dull with good stock. Selling at 40 to $75, as to quality.

TOBACCOS of all kinds are firm, and prices are tending higher. Low grades have advanced more materially than the finer ones. Stocks are light.

In WHISKY there is a fair trade doing. Highwines, 95c to $1.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Yesterday was an old fashioned Tuesday. All the boats in port were thronged with freight and people. The Arkansas, St. Francis, White, and lower river packets were all well patronised, and went out with trips to suit Pat Yore or any other man.

The Louisiana passed up. She got 800 bales of cotton at this port.

Col. Sid Jones, the well known agent of the United States mail line between Louisville and Cincinnati, is in our city on his way home from New Orleans.

Capt. Flem Calvert, Superintendent of the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company, returned home yesterday from a short visit to his family in Missouri. Capt. Flem is one of the most energetic and popular officers connected with this line, and his return was warmly welcomed by hundreds of friends. Capt. Jinks is himself again.

The Argosy, Capt. Wm. Ashford, is the regular Thursday packet for Jacksonport and all points on White river. She is a No. 1 steamer. Milt Harry and John Smither are her clerks.

The Belle St. Louis, Capt. Alex Zeigler, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis, making all way landings, and connecting with the trains north and east.

The Mary Forsyth, Capt. Haney, is the regular Thursday packet for Vicksburg and the bends. Freight for her received at all hours, upon the St. Louis wharfboat.

The Minneola decided to lay over until to-day, in order to fill out her engagements. She leaves promptly at 5 p.m., for Cairo, Evansville, Louisville and Cincinnati. Capt. Meller, her master, is a popular officer, and Wm. Hall is his chief clerk. We commend the Minneola to travelers.

The splendid Magenta, Capt. J. Frank Hicks, will be in port to leave at five Captain Reese Pritchard will have the Thomas H. Allen at the bank to-day, to load for Little Rock and way points on the Arkansas. She leaves to-morrow at five p.m., and connects with the Fort Smith packet closely. Creed Walker and Joe Thomas are her clerks.

The mammoth Thompson Dean, Capt. James H. Pepper, will pass down to-day for New Orleans. She gets away at five p.m.

The swift and handsome steamer Guidon will back out to-day for Pine Bluff and way landings on the Arkansas. She is an excellent steamer, and is in charge of clever officers. Capt. Clay Rice is master, and Garrett Huls is chief clerk, assisted by Dan Sullivan.

The Geo. W. Cheek brought down sixty-six of Clayton's cavalry from Osceola on Sunday. They shot an inoffensive passenger, named Davis, as the boat lay at Mound City, where the ruffians got ashore. They will take a boat on Thursday for Jacksonport.

What of the Dry Docks? Has the matter dropped? Won't they be brought to this city? These questions are asked daily and we can give no definite answer. That they should be here now there can be no doubt. We hope that some of our property holders will take the matter in hand and urge the prompt removal of the Cairo docks to Memphis.

The Great Republic was let down into the water at Mound City on Saturday last.

The steamer Alice V was purchased on Saturday, at United States marshal's sale, at Madison, Ind., by Mr. James Cunningham, for $2500. She will probably be dismantled at once.

The work of widening the channel through the rocks, known as Sycamore Chain, in the Mississippi river, twelve miles above Davenport, has been completed. The coffer dam will be taken away as rapidly as possible, and by the time navigation opens in the spring, the dreaded Sycamore Chain will have ceased to be a terror to pilots. The channel is from 218 feet wide, in the narrowest place, to 300 feet wide in the widest place, and the bottom of it is as smooth, uniform and level as possible to make, and is four feet below the low water mark of 1864—which was the lowest water ever known in the Mississippi. As now laid bare it shows a clean cut of the width and depth named, with only one curve, and that only four degrees in 600 feet. When the water is let out and the dam removed, buoys will be set marking the outward banks of the channel, for the guidance of pilots, so that those pilots who have not made themselves familiar with it while the work was in progress may have no fears on entering it.

WATCHES.

WALTHAM Watches!

THE extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham enable them to produce watches combining the best and latest improvements, and at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

OCULIST AND AURIST.

Capital Surgery & Chronic Diseases

DR. JONES,

OF NEW YORK,

Late Physician and Surgeon of Jones' Eye and Ear Institution in New York, and formerly Surgeon to the London (Eng) Eye and Ear Infirmary,

HAS been persuaded to make a professional visit to some of the principal cities in the United States, thereby to bring his skill within the reach of the afflicted thousands who could not avail themselves of it in New York. The success of Dr. JOHANNES A. JONES in the surgical and medical treatment of the Eye and Ear and old-standing complaints, has been looked upon with astonishment and joy. The press has recorded many of the skillful operations, reminding the people that they cannot always have Dr. Jones with them, and not to delay if they need his services.

DR. JONES is now Practicing at the Peabody House Memphis, Tenn., where he will remain until February 19th, 1869.

In the treatment of the EAR AND EYE, and other organs of sense, it becomes necessary to have a good knowledge of every thing pertaining to medicine and surgery. What are called regular Physicians may have graduated in either the old or the new school college, and can boast of a one-sided education. Dr. JONES has had a thorough education in both the old and the new school medical colleges, and in an Eye and Ear College, and in the Eye and Ear Infirmaries and Hospitals of America and Europe, and his Diplomas from the same hang in his office. It is impossible for a physician who has but the usual medical education, to successfully treat the Eye and Ear. Therefore Dr. JONES has availed himself of all the advantages the world affords to fit himself for his natural and chosen profession; and of his success the reader may judge by the following testimonials:

Through whose examination Dr. JOHANNES A. JONES has gone, and who have testified to his ability in the strongest language possible, by placing their names to his diplomas, which are suspended in his Office, open to the inspection of the interested.

Dr. JONES has a case of 300 different kinds of medicines with him, comprising the best from every part of the world, with which he cures nearly all of the old-standing (chronic) diseases that afflict both sexes and persons of every age, without any inconvenience or neglect of business.

Cross-Eyes Made Straight and Natural. This operation can be performed in all cases without fail, and Prof. Jones will do it successfully in old or young.

AMAUROSIS, or Nervous Blindness, skillfully treated.

Surgery.—Cataract operated for, Artificial Pupil, Encanthus, Exanthus, Ptosis, Pterygium, Naevi (or mother's mark) removed. Tumors in the Eye or ear removed. Cancers extracted. Hernia (or rupture) and Club Foot successfully operated upon. Enlarged Tonsils incised, (cut) with improved instruments for that express purpose. Hare Lip operated for and the deformity removed. Stillettoes introduced for Fistula Lachrymalis (or watery eye). Laryngotomy and all difficult and delicate operations in Surgery performed off hand with skill and the most improved instruments. Dr. Jones believes his instruments are superior to those of any surgeon in the United States, and are in keeping with the mechanism and science of the age, and give him a decided advantage in all difficult operations over other good surgeons, not one in a thousand of whom possess such a useful, modern, and magnificent case of costly surgical tools.

OTORRHŒA, or discharge of the Ears, whether caused by Scarlet Fever, Measels, Scrofula, Cold, or anything else, is cured by Dr. Jones in old or young, and the hearing restored or benefitted. Two thirds of the cases of total deafness might be prevented if this disease were not so shamefully neglected.

OLD STANDING DISEASES can be prescribed for at once by Dr. Jones, and the patient can use the remedies at home. And all operations are performed immediately before the patient leaves the Doctor. All who are afflicted should come prepared to have such treatment immediately as they may need.
